Edward Harder, 30, a former Crawford County Sheriff deputy, died June 17 in a skin-diving accident.

Harder was diving by himself attempting to recover a boat anchor when he apparently became tangled in debris. A friend waiting in his boat contacted emergency help when Harder did not resurface and his body was recovered by the St. Clair County Sheriff Dept.

Funeral arrangements were held at Colonial Chapel in Marine City on Monday, June 21.

COOR Gets Rid of Computer Headache

COOR continued its housecleaning this month by selling its large Burroughs computer which turned out to be more expensive than COOR could manage.

In 1978, COOR bought the computer for about $175,000 believing it would pay for itself as COOR sold data processing service to northern Michigan school districts. An addition to house the computer cost about $50,000 and COOR, experiencing economic difficulties, had to refinance the computer causing costs to soar to more than $300,000. Adding to the cost was yearly maintenance costing about $22,000.

Things hit rock bottom in 1980 when the computer data processing department of COOR lost close to $170,000 in one year and customers began switching to other processing centers complaining of COOR service.

COOR shut down the data processing department in 1981 and have been trying to sell the computer for a year. Early this June they succeeded in selling the computer for $34,000 to an Alabama company.

COOR still will have computer payments for five years, however, and for 1982-83 alone about $70,000 will be spent on computer payments and loan payments for the addition that housed the computer.

Hanson Park to Host Teen Dance Thursday Evening

Moving one step closer to attaining the goal of a year round community recreation area for the local community, Hanson Park opened its doors last Monday morning to any person interested in taking advantage of the recreational activities it has to offer. As the summer continues, the amount of available recreational activities at Hanson Park will increase, as will the hours of park operation. Presently the park can offer such activities as hiking, picnicking, canoeing, pedal-boating, basketball and volleyball. In the very near future the park's endurance trail should be completed as will one of the two softball fields.

Beginning a long list of special activities planned for the park, a teen dance will be held Thursday evening, June 24 in the park lodge. The music will be provided by Thane Doremire. Doors will open at 8:30 and the dance will be from 9:00 until 12:00. All teenagers of the area, residents and visitors alike are cordially invited to attend. The price of admission is $2.00 per person.

The park is presently also operating a structured summer recreation program for area youth. Classes which are presently in operation are nature study, Kid's Theatre, band, fly tying and fly fishing, gymnastics and softball. Students are still needed to fill these classes and anyone interested in registering their child for any of the classes is invited to drop by Hanson Park at any time. Additional information may be obtained by calling the park offices at 348-9266.

Shriners Selling Newspapers for Children

The northern Michigan Shrine Club will be conducting its fifth annual newspaper sale July 25 in Grayling.

The sale will raise money to support 18 hospitals for crippled children and three burn units, which together have helped more than 247,964 children. This year the cost to operate these 21 facilities will be about $82,000,000.

28 Minor Larcenies Reported

Crawford County Sheriff deputies were kept busy last week answering 28 larceny complaints. Several of the items reported stolen were camping equipment from campgrounds. Several gasoline service stations also reported larcenies when persons acquired gasoline and fled without paying.

A Sterling Heights man was injured Sunday when he drove his motorcycle off the roadway to avoid hitting a paper delivery vehicle and wound up hitting a mailbox. David Franklin, 22, was taken to Mercy Hospital by the Crawford County Ambulance Corps at approximately 2:45 a.m. and later was released. The accident occurred near M-72 East and Stephan Bridge Road.

8 Candidates Seek 36th District Seat

Eight candidates for the new 36th District State Senate seat have filed petitions placing their names on the August 10 primary ballot.

All of Crawford County is in the 36th District - redrawn during 1982 reapportionment.

No incumbent senators reside within the newly-created 36th District, one reason for the large number of candidates.

Five Republicans, Connie Binsfield, of Maple City, Hugh Prescott, of East Tawas, Thomas Keipert, of Roscommon, John Webb, Jr. of Whitmore, and Carol Andrews, of Ossineke, seek their party nomination.

Three Democrats, Edward Josephs, of Baldwin, Dale Sheltrown, of Gladwin, and Michael Mack, of Alpena, seek their party nomination.

The new 36th District is the largest in the state covering 16 counties from Lake Michigan to Lake Huron. Besides Crawford County, Oscoda, Ogemaw, Roscommon, Wexford, Presque Isle, Montmorency, Kalkaska, Missaukee, Manistee, Leelanau, Lake, Iosco, Benzie, Alcona, and Alpena counties are in the new district.

Crawford was in Mitch Irwin's 37 District before reapportionment.

Crawford's congressional district has also been redrawn. The 103rd still retains Crawford and Antrim counties, adds Oscoda, Otsego, and all of Roscommon County while dropping Kalkaska, Missaukee, Clare, Osceola, Isabella, and Grand Traverse.

Incumbent Republican Ralph Ostling, of Roscommon, was the only candidate to file for his party for the 103rd seat. Lewis Cox, of St. Helen, is the only candidate to file for the Democratic nomination.

In the U.S. congressional district boundaries, Crawford County is divided between two districts. Beaver

Beaver Creek Votes Aug. 10 On Fire Dept.

By Jon Thompson

A vote to start a fire department in Beaver Creek Township will take place Aug. 10 during the primary election.

Township residents will be asked if a special assessment district should be created for the fire department.

If voters approve, the cost of starting fire department is estimated to be about $173,000 spread over six years. The estimate of $173,000 includes purchasing a tanker, pumper, plus other equipment and building a three-bay structure. Training volunteers and operating the dept. is also included in the total.

The millage rate is estimated to be about 1.3 mills for the first year if voters say yes to starting their own dept.

Currently the township pays Grayling Fire Dept., Lyon Township, and the Village of Roscommon for fire protection. The Grayling Fire Dept. protects the $60 million new Weyerhaeuser plant in the northeast corner of the township, the Village of Roscommon protects the southeast corner of the township, and Lyon Township protects the rest of the township.

Beaver Creek Township Supervisor Cletis Spears said earlier this year it could cost Beaver Creek about $30,000 a year to pay for protection.

The movement to start their own fire department started after Lyon Township and the Village of Roscommon said they didn't have enough manpower to protect Beaver Creek Township this year as they have in the past.

After negotiations, the two fire departments agreed to protect the township but at much higher costs. And Lyon Township said they couldn't provide services for the new Weyerhaeuser plant.

Grayling Fire Dept. agreed to protect the plant for a fee from April 1 to June 30. They didn't want to enter a long-term pact because they were unsure what equipment might be needed to protect the large plant.

Beaver Creek then formed a committee to look into starting their own fire department. Already 25 volunteers have signed up. Approximately 20 volunteers will be needed to staff a new department.

The fire department question will be on the August 10 primary ballot.

KCC Approves Budget Using Cash Reserves

By Jon Thompson

Saving for a rainy day has paid off for Kirtland Community College.

The KCC Board of Trustees approved a preliminary 1982-83 budget that needs about $167,000 in reserve funds to make it balance. For 1981-82, about $120,000 in reserve funds had to be used. KCC has approximately $400,000 in reserve funds right now thanks to rainy day saving before the state economy fell flat.

But even with using fund reserves for 1982-83, nine of the 20-person faculty at KCC face lay-offs.

The college is asking the faculty for concessions that include a rollback in salaries to 1980-81 levels. If the faculty agrees to the rollback equalling about an 8½ percent cut on the average, lay-offs may be averted.

Negotiations are currently underway and the faculty have reportedly offered concessions including a 5 percent rollback.

KCC President Raymond Homer said the faculty received salary increases last year averaging 11.6 percent while administrators and classified employees received about a 6 percent hike. For 1982-83, administrative salaries and classified employee wages are frozen at 1981-82 levels.

The college and faculty are expected to reach an agreement in contract talks by June 23 - the deadline for the college required to give, 60-day notices to instructors being laid off next school year.

The 1982-83 KCC preliminary budget estimates expenditures to be about $3,586,000 and revenues to be about $3,418,940.

State aid to the college was estimated at $1,202,175, but after three years of cuts in state aid, college officials are not confident of receiving the entire amount.

State aid is one of three major sources of funds for the community college nestled in the woods east of Roscommon. Tuition fees and a one-mill tax on property owners in the school district are the other two main sources. The college already hiked tuition fees for

From Our Corner ...

We might as well get this out of the way first...and besides it gives a running start on this turkey for this week...all of our couple readers knew that Sunday was Father's Day, or Grandfather's Day whichever one wished to celebrate...anyhow, it just so happened that our T.C. family of John, Toni, T.J. and Stefany (they left black Bart, the girls' pony at home) came over to help the ol' fella out on Grandfather's Day...we only put this here for the one's we may have missed at the brunch at Chief Shoppenagons...speaking of the brunch we must add, we're happy the Leprechaun picked up his tab...I was worried about my own until I saw the group that got up and left his table...

At one time it was the Lep and his French bride Moe that ruled the Emerald Isle on Peninsular Ave. and now lately there has been a Polish gal who joined the clan and shortly there will be a German gal in the fold...and they still have three waiting in the wings...it's too bad one couldn't catch a Dane, then it would be complete...

Man, that helped getting us started...when we tried to start this turkey...it was a complete blank...and I would imagine some of our readers will say, why did you even start it...the problem is that we have so much space to fill, otherwise we were told, go find another job...

We still keep hearing about all the slaughter of the trees around Crawford County by someone that must be approved by the Department of Natural Resources out of Lansing, and we asked a few weeks ago if anyone knew what the heck was going on to let us know, so we could let our readers who keep on calling in and asking if we know anything about it...

Our answer has been negative...must be one of our powerful bureaucrats has decided to keep it under wraps...like we say, we asked earlier for an explanation, none came, and they still are raping the timber for some reason.

An idle thought...this is for Irv, Grayling's only retired railroad man as of the present...we heard he has given up on selling tickets, and has devoted all of his time to the golf course...knowing him, he will talk anyone out of a putt...

If the rest of the summer is like the first day was Monday, who ever said this was going to be a hot dry summer is all wet like the weather has been...here in Crawford County we need the rain, but gosh darn it I think we have had our share in the past week...really what bugs us is the fact I haven't been able to sit in our backyard for over a week now, we have missed all the meditation as we watched the birds and squirrels...we're not complaining too loud, we could still have a long dry spell, that might hurt our bride's garden, god forbid...

The gremlins were at it again...there are a number of typo errors which appear in just about every issue, but there was an error in the Mark Hamilton congratulations ad...the K somehow fell off the ad, and it read MAR...our sincere apologies to the Hamilton family we can appreciate their feelings...

This wraps up this week's column...not too much going on the way the weather has been, but, brighter days are ahead, we hope...goodnight T.J., Stefany and Amber, and to all our readers have a nice weekend...

Sanctification Without Condemnation

Romans 8:1-4

Just as Romans 6 gave us the principles of sanctification, and Romans 7 gave us the problems of sanctification, even so Romans 8 will give us the perfection of sanctification. This chapter begins with no condemnation and ends with no separation.

Our position in Christ Jesus frees us of condemnation. Our walk under control of the Holy Spirit characterizes our victory. "There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit." Romans 8:1.

Just as an airplane gains power and freedom over the law of gravity by applying a new law of aerodynamics and jet engine power, even so, we who are under "the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus" are freed from "the law of sin and death." Verse 2. "For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death."

The failure of God's law to sanctify us was not the fault of the law, but the failure of our flesh. For example, you may try to remove a roast from a pan in the oven onto a serving dish, but the fork fails to move the meat because it is well done. The failure is not in the fork, but in the roast. Because of the failure of our flesh, God sent His only begotten Son to take our sin and condemnation in His own flesh. "For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh." Verse 3. Jesus Christ fulfilled the righteous demands of God's law for us.

Not only did Jesus Christ fulfill the righteous demands of the law for us, but the Holy Spirit applies this work in us by His daily presence in the Spirit filled Christian. "That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit." Verse 4. Notice, the righteousness of the law is not fulfilled "by us", but "in us" by the end- dwelling Holy Spirit.

Just as you could do nothing to justify or save yourself, even so, you can do nothing to sanctify yourself. This is the message of Galatians. "This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?" Galatians 3:2. Did you receive the Spirit or become a Christian by works or faith? "Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?" Galatians 3:3. Sanctification by observing certain rules of conduct is foolishness. Sanctification is a work of God in our lives from start to finish. It is only available by faith. (adv.)

Where have all the Flies Gone?

Our cold & inclement weather conditions have postponed the pending Caddis (Hexagenia) hatch. Some possible results of this delay are afternoon hatches as well as many sections of the river producing big flies at the same time opposed to the often sequential Grayling to Mio hatching process.

With warm weather predicted soon, Brown Drakes should produce good evening fishing, with the Caddis providing the great fishing after dark.

In anticipation of the Caddis (Hexagenia) hatch coming on strong, the Old Ausable Sport Shop stands ready to assist area fishermen with flies, fishing supplies and up to date information on where those big flies have been spotted.

Join us, summer is finally here and indeed the best is yet to be.

Tax Reform Bill Defeated

LANSING—State Representative Ralph Ostling's efforts to save the State of Michigan $20 million were defeated for the second time in two days Thursday morning when the House failed to discharge a critical property tax reform bill from the House Taxation Committee.

According to the Roscommon Republican, the bill is designed to prevent welfare recipients who pay property taxes with welfare money from collecting property tax relief from the state's "circuit breaker" formula on Michigan state income tax forms.

"When welfare grant levels are determined, items like property taxes are considered to be part of the package," Ostling explained. "Next fiscal year, the state will allow welfare recipients to pay their property taxes with state money, and then get it right back again through the circuit breaker. In other words, they are basically exempt from paying property taxes. That's unfair and we tried to stop it."

Every Republican member in the House voted to discharge the bill from the House Taxation Committee, where the bill has been held since it was introduced. Few Democrats supported the bill, and many Democrats walked out of the chamber moments before the vote was taken to avoid a record roll call.

"We should have held the vote out in the lobby," Ostling stated. "That's where all the Democrats were who didn't want their votes recorded. I regard this as a critical budget bill for the next fiscal year. We could use the $20 million for something other than welfare increases."

Ostling is the ranking Republican on the House Appropriations Committee, the committee that determines the annual state budget.

Fresh Water May Lead To Economic Recovery

Warren M. Hoyt, Executive Director, MPA

American and Canadian officials are relying on fresh water as their "ace in the hole" to bring the region back to the economic strength it once enjoyed.

However, they were told by a law professor they could be powerless under current legal structures to halt diversion of water out of the area.

Wayne State University Professor Robert H. Abrams told officials attending a two-day conference on Mackinac Island that an interstate compact, agreed to by each of the eight states bordering the lakes and ratified by Congress, would go a long way toward preventing diversion.

But he said cases that are before the U.S. Supreme Court would probably result in rulings that a state ban on exporting water is unconstitutional.

Diversion of Great Lakes waters to the Southwest, a battle Lieutenant Governor James H. Brickley describes as pitting the water belt against the parch belt, was foremost in the minds of most officials.

In a region already reeling from an economic slump, many expressed fears that, with diversion goes economic recovery.

"If we allow water to be diverted, assuming we have the authority to do so, we are watching the loss of jobs," Abrams said.

He added diversion of large amounts of water across distances as far as the Southwest would not generally be feasible without government subsidies.

So despite such estimated costs of $30 billion to move 10,000 cubic feet of water per second from Lake Superior to the Missouri River, Abrams said continued pressures would be felt from interest groups seeking to move water supplies away from the midwest.

Such a diversion under a U.S. Army Corps of Engineers proposal would lower the lake level less than one inch and would take 10 power plants, each costing $1 billion, to move the water.

Abrams suggested an interstate compact which would limit water use only within the states in the Great Lakes basin would be the best way to begin protective action.

As part of the compact, he said, the existing Great Lakes Commission could get expanded authority to make decisions for the collective interest of the states on the use of the water.

He further said it would probably take amendments to the U.S./Canadian Boundary Waters Treaty to include the provinces in the compact.

Others warning against diversion included Natural Resources Director Howard Tanner who said the states and provinces must be well prepared by establishment of policy or establishment of legal doctrines to stop diversion by either the federal government or an individual state.

Brickley warned against an attempt by the Corps of Engineers to extend its authority under the Rivers and Harbors Act to cover most of Michigan's rivers and streams, in addition to its current authority over historically navigable waters.

"The more the federal government extends its jurisdiction over our waters the easier it will be for them to have an unwarranted diversion of water from this area," Brickley said.

Brickley added that diversion could never be warranted. The lieutenant governor said people should remain where the economic base is and not where they think it should be. He concluded that with the abundant supply of fresh water in the midwest, the economic base will remain in the region.

Strolling Around Town

By Fay Bovee

The City manager told me there is going to be so much new green grass growing where all the homeowners are fixing up that I won't be able to keep up with it. Isn't it wonderful that so many people are willing to struggle with our sandy soil to improve their homes? I missed one lawn on Chestnut belonging to the Derek McEvers. They also have a good start on ground cover and primroses on a too-shady lawn, besides a flower box and green carpeted steps.

The flowers are appearing in the business district now - at the Grayling Pharmacy, the beauty shop next door, Flowers by Josie, the Paint and Paper Palace, Weavers' Gifts and Cook's Cottage, the Grayling Mercantile, and J. and R. Florists. Bob and Ernie have replanted the tree which some of our locals destroyed.

The Youth Services and Jack Hull have moved into the house by M-72 Plaza and have trimmed trees and planted flowers. The two old homes on M-72-93 and I-75 intersection are gone and everything cleaned up. What a nice improvement!

The city and Camp Shawono boys are still working curbside. We'll have to see what they've accomplished by next week.

Our bouquet this week goes to Bob and Ernie for putting up the flags on Michigan Avenue. And in the rain at that! One of my readers commented on the lack of American flags over Memorial Day. Let's do better for the 4th of July!

Many home improvements are underway -

Whiting anniversary celebrates 30 years of reliable electricity

Howard Thoma saw it for the first time 30 years ago. Silent and untried, the J.R. Whiting Plant stretched high above him, the equivalent of a 16-story building.

The year was 1952. At the time, the new Whiting Plant would have the most powerful equipment ever to make electricity for Consumers Power Company. The plant's total capacity to produce electricity would be second largest in the company, smaller only than the Weadock Plant in Essexville.

Whiting was tucked between the small village of Erie and the Lake Erie shoreline, in a pleasantly rural area comfortably close to Toledo and Monroe.

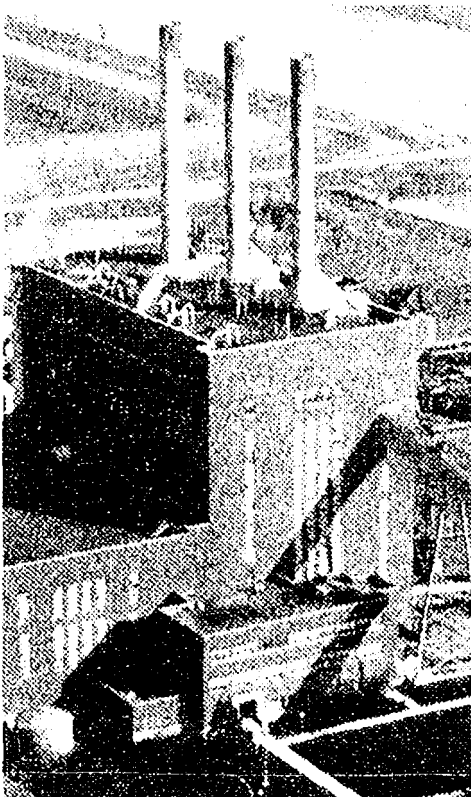

Thoma, now operations superintendent, still walks into the Whiting Plant each workday morning. He is one of only eight original plant employees still working there. Whiting's three generating units, and the plant's total output, have been dwarfed by newer plants.

But there are some things time cannot change. As the plant celebrates its 30th anniversary this month, it still is producing electricity as reliably as ever. It is a performance that over the years has earned Whiting a stalwart reputation at Consumers Power Company.

Very simply, Whiting burns finely ground coal to produce intense heat in its boilers. The heat turns water to steam. The steam is used to turn turbine blades, which are connected to a generator. The generator creates a magnetic field, producing electricity.

The statistics show that Whiting employees execute the process extremely well. Despite the plant's age, for example, Whiting last year was again well above the company's standards for what is called "availability" the percentage of time a generating plant is mechanically capable of operating. Plant employees are proud of their ability to keep Whiting running almost trouble-free. It is an impressive feat, considering the machines involved. The boilers heat steam to temperatures of 1,000 degrees, and turbine blades can spin at almost 950 miles an hour—around the clock, 365 days a year.

But reliability is only one of many accomplishments in which plant officials and employees share tremendous pride. Among the achievements they point out:

—In 1981, Whiting saved the company and its customers $1.4 million through improved efficiency and lower fuel costs.

—Whiting leads the company in selling ash, which is the residue left when coal is burned. Thirty percent of the plant's fly ash was sold to the cement industry last year, reducing on-site storage costs and producing income for Consumers Power Company. Plant employees also have developed a way to use ash in black-top paving; they hope that will create additional income.

In 1981, Whiting's precipitators surpassed clean air standards. Precipitators are anti-pollution devices which cleanse the gases produced by burning coal; they remove dust and ash before the gas is discharged through the plant's chimney.

Endangered plants like the lotus and swamp rosemallow are thriving on plant property, proving industry and nature can live in harmony.

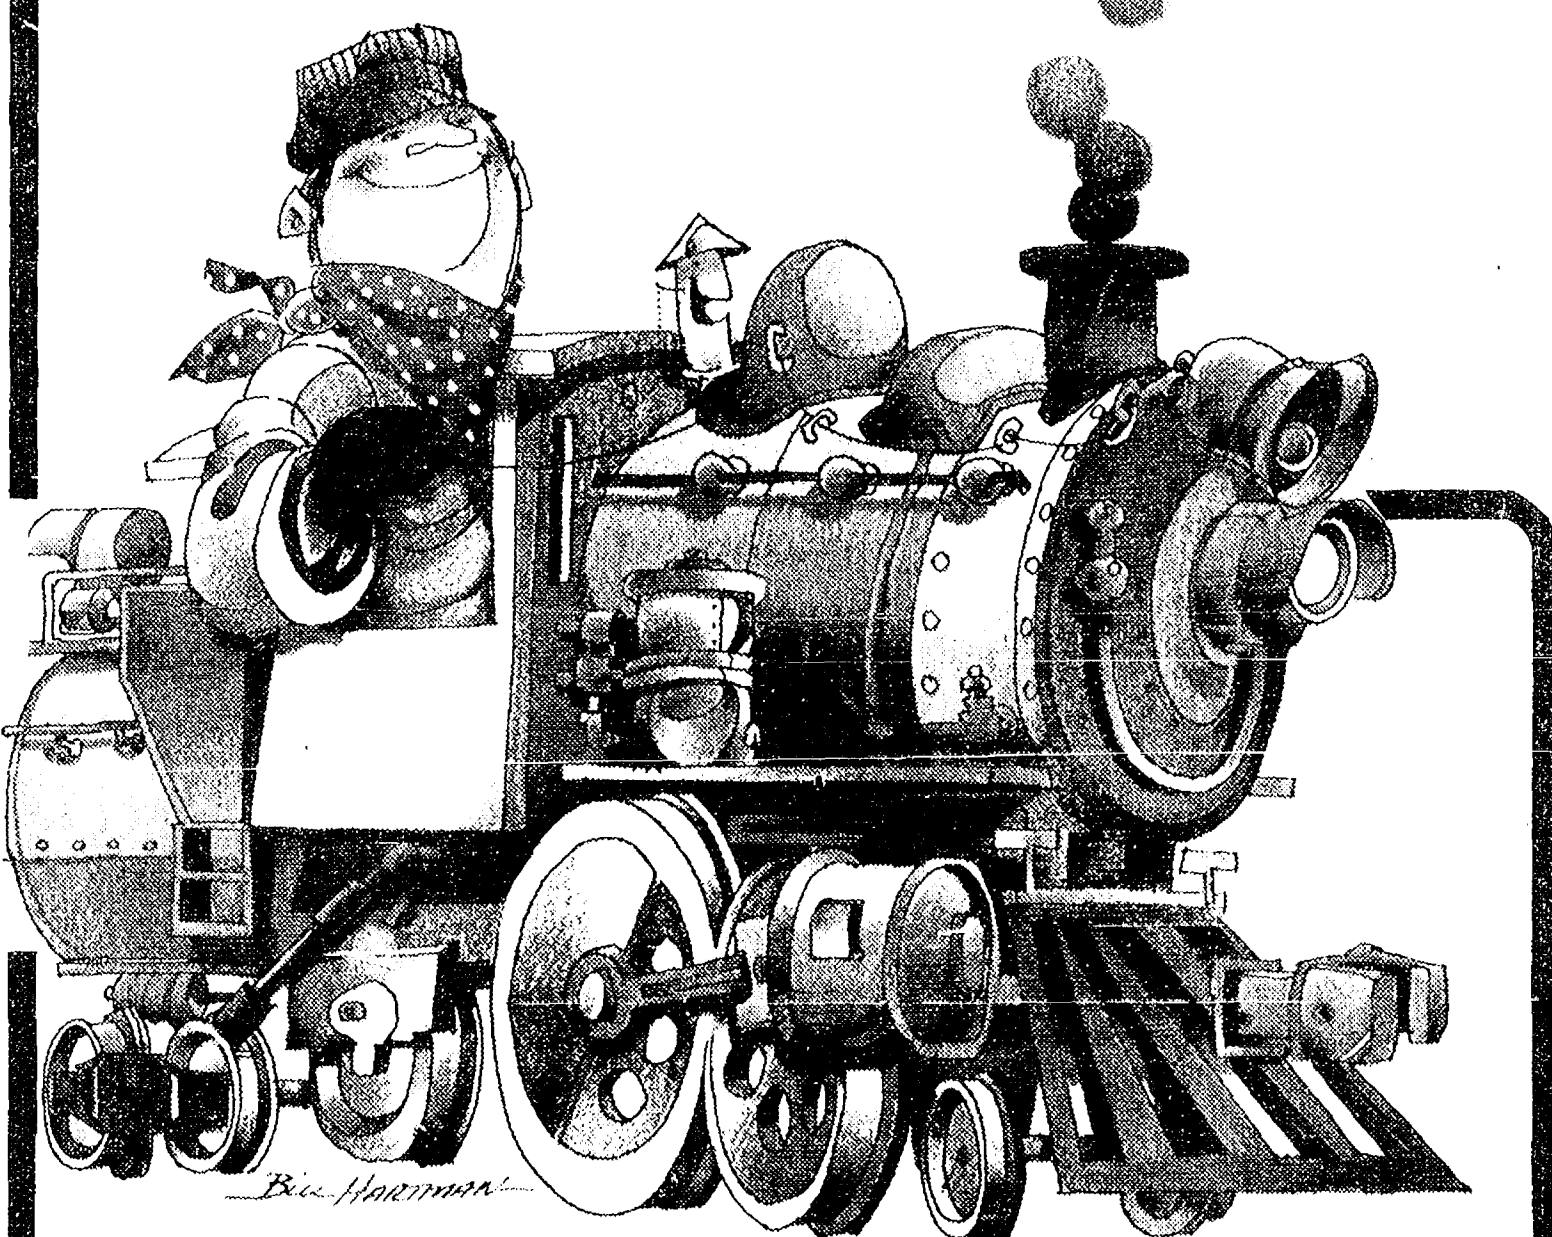

Thoma points out that accomplishments like these don't happen by accident. "We've had good equipment, and good people," he explains. The people he has worked with during the plant's lifetime "have contributed very much to the plant's performance record."

"They are proud of these accomplishments, and they should be," Thoma says.

This advertisement is paid for by the shareholders of Consumers Power Company.

Doodles From The Tall Timber

Wendell L. Hoover
Park Interpreter

The flower called Maianthemum canadense is one of those which appears early in June. The name means May-flower. It also bears the name of bead ruby, referring to the fruit, or one leaf referring to the fact that young plants bear only one leaf. This dainty white flower is found from Newfoundland to the Northwest Territory and south to North Carolina and Iowa. It favors moist woodlands and brushlands, often where soil is poor but more commonly where it is loose and deep.

Seven inches tall is about its maximum height, with an erect stem bearing one to three leaves. The leaves, up to three inches long, are somewhat egg shaped but pointed at the free end and heart shaped at the base. Both the stem and leaves are smooth or finely haired. The flowers are small, with segments only about 1/16 inch long. The flowers, despite their size, produce pale red-speckled berries which appear during mid to late summer. The berries are much relished by birds and small rodents. The flower's common name is False-Lily-of-the-Valley.

Editor's Mailbox

June 19, 1982

To the Editor:
Many of our citizens are about to be "Fooled again" by Lansing's politicians.

Lansing refuses to believe that our bad reputation for having an unhealthy, unproductive business climate is principally caused by our taxing and spending and regulating policies put upon us by self-serving, special interest legislators who have driven many employers out of the state or worse yet out of business entirely.

It does not take a genius to know that Michigan must lower the tax burden on all of our citizens.

Some of our political leaders are finally recognizing that property taxes must be reduced...but, they offer a shift to other taxes. A shift will not correct our dilemma.

The people want a Tax Cut not a Tax Shift. People are asking, "Where are the Tisch Petitions?"

Thousands of petition forms are in circulation but signatures are slow in returning to us.

We need tens of thousands of signatures before July 5th so that come next November's election the voters can have a choice as to how best to correct our severe economic condition.

We need many of your readers to help us collect signatures in these last crucial days. We'll gladly mail petitions to anyone who calls us at area code 517-651-5874. Volunteers are on duty from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. every day.

The Tisch Tax Cut is a finely tuned Michigan constitutional amendment conceived to deliver the same benefits, over the next four years, that the people of California and Massachusetts are now enjoying...benefits of increased employment, higher earnings, no loss of public services or visible weakening of revenues (see current June issue of Nations Business Magazine.)

We can do it too if your readers will help us.

Thank you,
Robert E. Tisch

Bits O'Talk

By Fay Bovee

Charles and Kay Buichl of Alger were guests of Grover and Marie Cason weekend before last. Grover and Charles were school classmates in Detroit.

Dr. William Diedrich held an open house for his daughter, Cathy, upon her graduation from Grayling High School, on Saturday afternoon, June 12. Special guests from out-of-town were Dr. Jamie Savedoff and his wife and son of Concord, Mi.

Mrs. Nancy Elliott and son, Michael, of Ann Arbor, spent several days here recently visiting her mother, Mary Jane Knibbs, and also in Petoskey visiting her brother, Jim Knibbs and family.

Karen Carlson and children of Canton, Ohio, spent several days last week visiting her mother, Mrs. Jean Gothro, while Ted went on to Minneapolis to attend a meeting.

Art Council Sponsors Theater

The newly formed Crawford County Arts Council is sponsoring four performances by the well-known and highly respected American Musical Theatre's Young Americans. On consecutive Monday evenings this summer, the Young Americans will present to area audiences "To Richard Rodgers, With Love", "Grease", "The Pirates of Penzance", and "Music Man".

The performances are scheduled for July 19, July 26, August 2, and August 9, in the Joseph Stripe Auditorium of Grayling High School, on Old U.S. 27 North, three miles north of Grayling. Ticket price is $8.00 for each performance. For information or to order tickets, call (517) 348-7641, between 8:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m.

Earns Business Degree

Michelle Bancroft, of Grayling, has earned an associate degree in secretarial science from the Muskegon Business College. She was awarded her degree at the end of the spring quarter of this year.

Easter Seals

I would like to resign as volunteer Chairman of the Crawford County Easter Seals Chapter as I do not have the time to give. I have been chairman since 1956. Between the housing and the programs for the aging, which I thoroughly enjoy, I do not find hours enough to coordinate fund raisers and special events for Easter Seals.

We are also building some new housing which is time consuming as well.

You do not have to handle money or do bookkeeping as all the counties are now consolidated at the state office so the work load is not so large as when we started in 1956.

You will need a place to keep the loan closet equipment to pass out to the people as needed.

If you are interested and would like to have more information, please come and see me at the Senior Center (308 Lawndale Drive).

Helping the handicapped is a very rewarding experience and one I have enjoyed - just can't find the time anymore.

Lora Gould

A Freeloader's Last Request

Once upon a time there was a veteran who had never joined the Disabled American Veterans. All his life he took the benefits won for him by the Disabled American Veterans, but he refused to join. Then on his death bed he told his wife:

"Please do something for me. I want Disabled American Veterans to be my pallbearers."

"But you never belonged to the Disabled American Veterans," his wife objected. "Why do you want Disabled American Veterans to be your pallbearers?"

Dear, he replied, "they've carried me this far...they might as well carry me the rest of the way."

Are you a DAV or a member of the DAV?

RSVP Reports

by Sherry Haag, Director

Welcome to news of the Retired Senior Volunteer Program. In a recent interview with Thomas Pauken, he stated: "As the director of ACTION, I've had the unique opportunity of observing firsthand how older Americans view volunteerism. What they bring to their work is a sense of awareness that can only be gained through years of experience. Within such awareness is the recognition that anyone who offers his or her time and talent in the pursuit of making life better or less painful for someone else, is bound to be enriched. While most of us have the habit of tending to take our liberties for granted, that is not the case with our older Americans. One clear illustration is found in the number of older Americans engaged in the volunteer programs ACTION sponsors. The numbers are impressive and growing daily - more than 300,000 senior citizens active in more than 1,000 projects in 1,000 communities all across the country. The figures say something about commitment, effort and response, but where, you might ask, does liberty fit into it? It fits because that's what volunteerism means - free choice, and is there any greater freedom than that, in having a choice to use one's time in whatever way one wishes? For more than a quarter of a million older Americans the choice has been to volunteer, to exercise their gift of free choice as a gift to someone in need. That's an inspiring message for all Americans to acknowledge and to reflect on. Unlike the costliness of so many government-funded undertakings, the return of this investment is truly to the benefit of the taxpayer. The return in human relationships is immeasurable. During this past year, while the number of senior volunteers has increased, so too have the areas of endeavor. They now include drug education and counseling; eradication of illiteracy; and aiding our newest immigrants to find their way in a strange world where, to most of them, free choice is as unknown as the English language they must learn. An attitude that was prevalent not so long ago was that anyone past the age of 60 was over the hill. Fortunately, age is an attitude that was driven over the hill by the weight of its own ignorance. Today, older Americans are a highly regarded segment of our population, 34 million strong and growing stronger. They comprise the most informed and experienced element in our society. Their achievements have sustained our promise; their maturity has provided balance. The days of their years are a strength on which we can draw."

Presently, Crawford County RSVP needs volunteers to help put the wooden kitchen plaques together. So if you'd like to glue, etc., please give us a call at 348-4341, or 348-3322.

If you're interested in becoming an RSVP volunteer, call the office, Monday thru Friday, 8-5. 348-4341 or 348-3322.

Grayling Township Board

Regular Meeting — June 8, 1982

Members present: Bernard Fowler, Elizabeth Wieland, Evelyn Gardiner, Marvin Hallett, Jacqueline Bonkowski.
 Members absent: None
 Others present: John W. Libcke, Charles L. Post, Robert E. Harrington Jr., Howard K. Guyett Sr., Bob Chappel, Cal Brenner, Sue Brenner, Barb Sojka.

Meeting was called to order at 7:30 p.m. by Supervisor Fowler. Motion by Bonkowski, supported by Hallett, the minutes of the Regular Meeting of 5-11-82 and the minutes of the Special Meeting of 6-2-82 be approved as written. All ayes.

Treasurers report was given. Motion by Hallett, supported by Bonkowski, it be accepted. All ayes.

1. Correspondence from the Huron-Manistee National Forest Service, USDA, was received relative to a canoe control system being implemented on the Pore Marquette River this season.

2. A copy of the Northeast Michigan Solid Waste Planning Committee's Management Plan was received. The public comment period will expire June 15.

3. A copy of a revised Crawford-Ortsego Counties Joint Landfill rate schedule effective July 1, was received and reviewed.

4. Correspondence to Supervisor Fowler from Representative Ostling relative to the status of HB 4992 was received.

5. A copy of the notice from the Secretary of State's Office acknowledging receipt and filing of the Crawford County Transportation Authority Agreement was received.

6. Notice of the monthly hearing scheduled by the Public Service Commission for Consumers Power Company relative to reflecting charges or credits for changes in items of expense in customers billings was received.

7. Copies of the April and May Crawford County Sheriff Department Activities reports were received, reviewed, and placed on file.

8. A preliminary order was received from the County Tax Allocation Board as follows: Schools 7.2, County 6.5, Townships 1.0, and COOR 3, totaling 15.0 mills. Fowler indicated the Final Order was approved June 7 at the same millage rate but notice has not been received yet.

9. Literature from the Silent Majority Speaks, Inc. relative to various tax proposals being considered for the November ballot was received.

10. Notice from the Public Service Commission in the matter of the proceedings to consider the elimination of automatic adjustment clauses of electric and gas utilities and the adoption of alternatives thereto sent to member-owners of Top O Michigan Rural Electric Company was also received.

11. Fowler gave a resume of the hearing conducted on 5-26-82 with property owners in the Glenn and Orbit Roads area on the creation of a Special Assessment District for road improvement projects. Fowler indicated the County Road Commission has changed their policy of financial participation as follows: they will pick up 50% of the cost of grade and gravel, but will no longer share in the cost of blacktopping. Under present policy the Township picks up 25% of the total cost of the project. Rather than put such burden on property owners to pick up the balance or possibly discourage road improvement projects, Fowler inquired if consideration to a change in Township policy might be considered. After discussion, Wieland moved Township policy be changed to allow the Township to pick up 25% of the grade and gravel costs and 50% of the blacktopping costs (a like amount with property owners). Motion was supported by Bonkowski. All ayes.

The cost estimate received for grade and gravel of Glenn and Orbit Roads is $9,000.00 and blacktopping is $16,000.00. Under new policy each property owner share would average $240.00. If spread over a 3 year period, this average would be $80.00 per year. Motion by Gardiner, supported by Hallett, to approve the Special Assessment District for road improvement projects for Glenn and Orbit Roads as presented at the hearing with costs to be divided as indicated under new policy over a three year period. All ayes.

Regular Meeting recessed at 8:04 p.m. by Supervisor Fowler to conduct the proposed use hearing on the 1982-83 Federal Revenue Sharing Fund as advertised.

PUBLIC HEARING

Hearing opened at 8:04 by Supervisor Fowler for the purpose of receiving oral and written comments or suggestions regarding possible uses of Federal Revenue Sharing Funds. Anticipated revenues for the 1982-83 Fiscal Year are $14,200.00. All of these funds have been budgeted to the Fire Department in the past. Robert Harrington commented on the efficiency experienced in his area recently by the Fire Department. No written or oral comments relative to possible use of funds were received. A second hearing - budget hearing - will be conducted at the Annual Meeting on June 26 at 1:00 p.m.

Supervisor Fowler adjourned the hearing at 8:09 p.m.

Regular Meeting resumed at 8:09 p.m.

12. Gardiner gave a brief resume on the Cemetery Policy committee meeting she attended. The number of grave pre-sales was the main item of discussion. City Council proceedings of May 24, 1982, approve the purchase of up to four (4) pre-need graves for Grayling Township and Grayling City residents and/or taxpayers, prohibit the transfer of lots to any other party except the City, and authorize purchase by the City of such lots for the same amount paid to the City at the time of purchase. Perpetual care, cost of grave sites, and use of the pre-need graves by immediate family members was discussed. Gardiner moved that City of Grayling and Grayling Township residents and/or taxpayers be permitted to purchase up to four (4) pre-need graves. Grave lots may be transferred to members of the immediate family. Grave lots may only be sold to the City-Township of Grayling for the same amount paid at the time of purchase. Motion supported by Bonkowski. Roll call: Bonkowski-aye, Gardiner-aye, Hallett-aye, Wieland-aye, Fowler-aye. Motion carried.

All ayes.

All ayes.

16. Appointments to a building review committee for the proposed township hall were discussed. Board members submitted the following citizens for consideration: Ed Rutkowski, Randy Thompson, William Rutter, Dave Wyman, and Charles L. Post. Motion by Bonkowski, supported by Hallett, to appoint the above five citizens to serve on a building review committee of the proposed township hall for a recommendation to the Township Board of a proposal for the November ballot. All ayes.

18. The Assessing Department Report was received, reviewed, and placed on file. Residential sales and transfer documents were highlighted.

20. A request was received from Consumers Power Company for an easement on Township property (compactor and Little League site) to install underground service for the Little League field. Several township residents throughout the county have expressed concern on this issue. Fowler will meet with other Township Supervisors to pursue the issue and if desired, a petition drive to have the question placed on the general ballot will be made. A limitation of 15.0 mills for an indefinite period will be discussed.

23. Fowler informed the Board that he presented the petitions from property owners in the Salling Lake area to the County Board of Commissioners relative to establishing a normal legal water level. Said issue is being reviewed by the County Prosecutor.

24. Lake Margrethe area residents have requested an additional light at the M-93 and Grayling Avenue intersection. Fowler will obtain cost estimates of the installation of an additional light.

25. Brief discussion on the 1.0 mill levy for Township operation was held. Reduction of said mill will effect state revenue sharing funds returned to the township so alternate ways to cut back or save local residents and/or taxpayers will be considered. Compactor ticket sales will be pursued.

26. The 4th of July Fire Works Celebration was also discussed. Motion by Bonkowski, supported by Hallett, to support the Grayling Boosters Club and authorize a $300.00 contribution for the fireworks display. Roll Call: All ayes. Motion carried.

ADC and GA Caseloads Drop in May

For the second consecutive month, Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) and General Assistance (GA) caseloads in Michigan declined in May, a trend that may be linked to the state's gradually improving employment picture.

Last month's AFDC cases totalled 229,710 - down 0.9 percent, or 2,198 cases, from the April level. The significant sub-category AFDC-Unemployed also dropped for the second straight month to 41,410 cases - down 2.6 percent, or 1,089, below April.

The May GA caseload went down to 106,740 - 0.2 percent, or 235 cases, under the April count.

Food Stamp caseload information was not available for the Dept. of Social Services' preliminary report.

DSS Director Noble Kheder noted that the AFDC caseload would have gone up but for about 3,300 case closings resulting from rules that require recipients to complete and return a monthly report showing any changes in income, family size or living situation that could affect eligibility.

"However, we expected more underlying growth in AFDC than the 1,100 cases we saw last month," Kheder said. "We also thought that the GA caseload would be continually growing this year, but now we've had two straight months of decline. That is good news."

Kheder added that DSS analysts tied the caseload drops at least partly to falling unemployment in Michigan which has gone down from 16.1 percent in March to 14.3 percent in May, seasonally adjusted.

MAKE MAPS—Mr. Hayes' and Miss Johnson's classes made maps for Michigan Week on Monday, May 16. They put some highlights on the map to represent Michigan. Here are some of them: tulips in Holland, cherries in Traverse City and automobiles in Detroit. Above are the kids from the classes holding their maps. By Dusty Smith and Amy LaGrow, 5th grade.

Attend the Church of Your Choice

Look closely at a so-called perfect rose! Scan the petals; you will find they are far from perfect. But uneven shapes, blemishes or misshapen stems will not spoil the delicate color, rich fragrance and sheer beauty of the total flower.

How clearly a rose illustrates that nothing in life is truly perfect! But, rather than discourage us, this should give us fresh confidence and strength.

God did not make the rose perfect—nor did He make us perfect. Yet He thinks none the less of us for our faults and blemishes. In His eyes we always have another chance. But it is up to us to take it.

Start by going to the church of your choice this week!

Exhibitors' Displays Draw Farmers To Michigan State's Ag. Expo

East Lansing, Mich.—Why would agricultural producers from all over Michigan want to travel to Michigan State University in the middle of July?

To see the largest farm equipment show in the state, of course.

More than 35,000 farmers and others are expected to gather at MSU July 20-22 for the third annual Ag. Expo.

"Michigan State University and the Michigan agricultural industry are teaming up to provide a major educational event for agricultural producers," says William Bickert, MSU agricultural engineer. "The state's agricultural producers are coming to Ag. Expo to see the latest in agricultural equipment, products and services."

Over 300 commercial exhibitors will display their most recent models of farm machinery and equipment. There will also be 18 educational exhibits offered by MSU researchers in such areas as soil testing, weed identification and protective clothing for pesticide users.

"One of the highlights of Ag. Expo is the opportunity to work with people representing commercial organizations," Bickert says. "Ag. Expo is a success because of the excellent contributions of these commercial organizations."

Ag. Expo will be held again in July 1983, Bickert says, and applications for space at that show will be distributed in the exhibitor's packets this year.

Flavor Plan

Whenever possible, make salad dressings a day before you plan to use them. This gives flavor time to mingle.

To Hold Conference

"Energy Conservation, Renewable Resources and Economic Development in Northwest Michigan" will be the theme of a conference sponsored by the M.S.U. Cooperative Extension Service, Traverse City Area Industrial Fund, and the Northern Michigan Solar Energy Association. It will be held at Embers on the Bay just north of Traverse City in Acme, July 13.

The Conference will be concerned with ways jobs can be created through use of renewable energy sources such as solar, wind, wood, and refuse along with energy conservation so that money spent for fuels can stay in Northern Michigan. Richard Dusseau, of the Oscoda County Economic Development Corporation, Mio, Michigan, will be one of the speakers, describing the new industrial cogeneration development going in at that location.

For more information and reservations, contact Martha Drake, Emmet County Cooperative Extension, 441 Bay Street, Petoskey, Michigan, 347-2596.
